God's Steadfast Love

I give thanks for your steadfast love and faithfulness.... For though the Lord is high, he regards the lowly.

—Psalm 138:2b, 6a

I recently read about a young couple who lost their small home in the wildfire that swept through Altadena earlier in January. Wearing masks, they went back to see if they could salvage any of their belongings. She planned to look for anything that might be worth keeping; he focused on where his desk had been—because he had placed an engagement ring in a drawer and had been planning to ask her to marry. Indeed, the ring was there, whole, but rather charred looking. Next to the rubble, he asked her to marry him, and after giving him a tearful hug, she said yes. Their love endured their loss, and looked to the future with hope.

God's faithful people proclaim over and over that not only does God's love endure, but it endures forever, and God's love is steadfast and faithful. The writer of Psalm 138, one of our Sunday lectionary Psalms for this month, declares twice in eight verses that their experience and faith that God's love is enduring and steadfast. What does that love look like?

Though God is in the highest of high places, with the members of the heavenly court and earthly kings both recognizing and praising the greatness of God's glory, there is an astonishing, even scandalous twist to God's glory. God does a very unregal and seemingly ungodly thing: God, the very highest of the high, attends to the helpless and vulnerable, those on the margins of faith and life! This is extraordinary. The high and mighty simply do not do this sort of thing. They are too far removed to consider the plight of those who are distressed, weak, insecure, low, in jeopardy. Yet here the tables are turned. The psalmist suggests that the very height of highness and glory are attributed to God, not because God aspires to these things, but because God stretched out a divine hand to reach low and deliver the lost and downcast. This is what God's steadfast love and faithfulness looks like.

So in our gospel readings in Luke for worship, Jesus insists that God's love extends to outsiders (Luke 4:21-30), that God's love works in the deep (Luke 5:1-11), that God blesses the poor, the hungry, and weeping (Luke 6:17-26), and that God loves our enemies, the ungrateful, and the wicked (Luke 6:27-38).

This month, let us give thanks to God, for God's steadfast love endures forever!

Peace, Pastor Dave

Dear Friends,

February is National Heart month. May you be blessed with God's heart healing peace. "A heart at peace gives life to the body..." (Pr. 14: 30) As we try to live a healthy lifestyle here are 10 tips for maintaining a healthy lifestyle and body weight.

- Measure and watch your weight.
- Limit unhealthy foods and eat healthy meals. Don't forget to eat breakfast and choose meals with more protein and fiber and less sugar, fat and calories.
- Take a multivitamin supplement. To make sure you have sufficient levels of nutrients is a good idea especially when you do not have a variety of vegetables and fruits at home.
- Drink water and stay hydrated and limit sugared beverages
- Exercise regularly and be physically active.
- Reduce sitting and screen time
- Get enough good sleep
- Go easy on alcohol and stay sober.
- Find ways to manage your emotions.
- Use an App to keep track of your movements, sleep and heart rate.

Valentine's Day is February 14. Here is a poem I want to share with you.

God's Valentine Gift By Joanna Fuchs

God's Valentine gift of love to us / Was not a bunch of flowers?
It wasn't candy, or a book / To while away the hours.

His gift was to become a man, / So He could freely give His sacrificial love for us, / So you and I could live.

He gave us sweet salvation, and / Instruction, good and true-
To love our friends and enemies / And love our Savior, too.

So as we give our Valentines, / Let's thank our Lord and King;
The reason we have love to give / Is that He gave everything.

Peace, Maryann

Seminary Sunday, February 23

This year we celebrate the 200th anniversary of Lancaster Theological Seminary. As a supporter, you have a vital role in sustaining theological education and preparing future generations of church leaders.

Congregations may participate through:

- Prayer: Encourage your congregation to pray for LTS, its students, faculty, and staff.
- Financial Support: Consider collecting a special offering during the service to support LTS.
- Nurturing Relationships: Invite a seminary student to be a guest preacher or speaker on Seminary Sunday (limited availability).

Thank you for supporting Seminary Sunday and raising awareness within your congregation about the vital importance of theological education.

Please contact Darryl Stephens at stephensd@moravian.edu if you plan to participate in Seminary Sunday or if you would like to request bulletin inserts or additional information.

Equilla Curry's Ecclesiastical Council

We had a very well-attended Ecclesiastical Council meeting for Equilla Curry on January 12 at Faith UCC. Equilla had heart-felt sharings about her background, family, and faith journey. Several engaged with Equilla with questions and reminiscences. We enthusiastically and unanimously approved Equilla for ordination in the UCC pending a call. Congratulations, Equilla!

A big shout out of thanks to Faith Church for their hospitality (including refreshments) and to those who generously contributed to our Members in Discernment (MID) / Seminary Education Fund!

Blessings, Rick Pulling

UCC Environmental Ministries

Hey there! Get ready for an exciting year ahead with the UCC National Ministries! We are in the midst of launching two initiatives.

- First, we just announced our 2025 Climate Hope Art Contest for children and youth. Our theme this year is “Planting Seeds of Hope.” There will be winners in different age categories and an all-expense-paid trip to DC for the overall winner and a parent/guardian. Learn more and register your congregation. We will be accepting submissions from February 2 to March 14th.

- Second, with the inspiration of Sam Daley-Harris's successful model of transformative advocacy, we are starting a new Climate Hope Affiliates program that is focused on building lasting relationships with congress members, so that they can be moved up a ladder commitment whether that means moving from opposition to neutrality or support to active leadership. We are rolling out affiliates in waves throughout the year with our first four beginning in February and March. Let me know your interest in this program by filling out this short Google Form.

Together, we can turn the tide on climate change. Let's make 2025 a year of unprecedented hope and action! Questions? Reach out to me at any time. Let's grow this movement, one seed at a time!

Trinity UCC Receives Prestigious Calvin Institute Vital Worship Grant for 2025

January 7, 2025 – (Trinity UCC), a historic congregation in York, Pennsylvania, proudly announces that it has been awarded the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship's Vital Worship Grant. This significant honor will fund the groundbreaking "Worship in Motion" project, which is set to transform worship experiences throughout the 2025 calendar year.

Rev. Dr. Dominique Denman, the Director of Education and Community Outreach at Trinity UCC and the project's Director, expressed enthusiasm about the initiative. "Worship in Motion" is an innovative way to blend art and faith by using film to create meaningful connections between scripture, worship, and the contemporary issues our community faces. This grant enables us to expand our vision of worship as a space for spiritual growth and community transformation," said Rev. Dr. Denman.

The "Worship in Motion" project will integrate short films into Trinity's worship services to enhance congregational engagement, deepen scriptural reflection, and foster creative storytelling. Each film will serve as a medium for exploring faith through a lens that connects the congregation to both timeless biblical truths and the challenges of modern society.

Local filmmakers, worship leaders, and community partners will collaborate with the Trinity UCC team to produce and curate these films. Post-worship discussions and outreach events led by church staff and volunteers will invite dialogue and reflection, helping participants connect their faith to pressing social issues such as justice, reconciliation, and community healing.

"This project underscores Trinity UCC's commitment to inclusive worship and community impact," Rev. Dr. Denman added. "By leveraging the power of film, we hope to inspire both personal spiritual growth and collective action for change."

Trinity UCC's innovative approach to worship aligns with its mission to serve as a historic, giving, and inclusive congregation rooted in multicultural and artistic expression. The Calvin Institute of Christian Worship's Vital Worship Grant is a prestigious recognition that supports initiatives fostering deeper engagement in worship and vibrant congregational life.

The "Worship in Motion" project will commence in January 2025 and continue throughout the year, with a series of worship services and community events planned to showcase the films and facilitate dialogue.

About Trinity UCC: Trinity United Church of Christ, located in York, Pennsylvania, is a historic and inclusive congregation known for its strong music and arts program.
